Review Applicant Specifications

- AEIOU refused to sign off on Chelsey Little's medical because of a foot related injury
- The concern is if Chelsey can do the job or not with this injury
- "I want to work and I want to do this job" says Chelsey.
 - The immobility will be temporary for a few weeks.
- Upon Chelsey's ability to work, she will do a flex hours plan with her scheduling.
 - Walker has no problem with the flex hours idea that Chelsey has proposed. Gray and Meisner have no issues with the flex hours either.
- Regardless of the injury, Chelsey would still like to start on the 28th.
- Meisner makes a motion to accept the Chelsey Little's employment regardless of the injury with a starting date on January 28th, 2019.
 - Seconded by Walker
 - Vote passes 2 with Gray abstaining from the vote.

Topics reasonably not anticipated within 48 hours

- We will be posting a part time operator position in the paper.
- David Prickett would like to have a meeting with us to discuss the USDA grant.
- Chelsey has some idea to solving some of the I/I issues
 - Bypass contact chamber for wet weather events.
