

Event: "The Pipeline and Your Rights - a Forum for Landowners, Municipalities and Citizens"

Date: May 2, 2015

Time: 10:00-12:00pm

Place: Great Falls Discovery Center, 2 Avenue A, Turners Falls, MA

This forum, sponsored by the Massachusetts PipeLine Awareness Network, will include attorneys, land specialists, elected officials and community activists. Topics will include protecting your rights as landowners, municipalities, and communities, and engaging in FERC and state regulatory proceedings.

Participants and panelists to include Scott Cote, Franklin County Registrar of Deeds; State Representative Paul Mark; Regulatory Attorney Richard Kanoff of Burns & Levinson, LLP; Rosemary Wessel, Founder of No Fracked Gas in Mass; Leigh Youngblood, Executive Director of Mount Grace Land Conservation Trust; Meg Burch, Conway Board of Health Chair, Conway Pipeline Task Force Member and FRCOG Pipeline Advisory Committee Member.

Contact: Kathryn R. Eiseman, Director Massachusetts PipeLine Awareness Network katyeiseman@gmail.com
(413) 320-0747